In addition to these pages, please provide the following information:

(1) Current Curriculum Vita that includes ALL of the following information:

- a. Education: List academic degrees, years awarded, institutions, location, and major or area of specialization.
- b. Clinical Training: List site and dates of all internships, residency programs, practicum placements, advanced certificate training, or any other formal supervised training with names of direct supervisors and dates of supervision.
- c. Professional Experience: Provide all post-training employment, dates, and brief description of the nature of the clinical work. Include private practice, and list supervisors and dates of supervision where applicable.
- d. Publications: Provide a list of publications, or unpublished clinical/theoretical writings.
- e. Teaching: Provide courses titles, location/institution, date(s), and a brief description of the course or seminar, if applicable. (If this was a semester-course, please also include a copy of the syllabus).

(2) Personal Statement: We are interested in learning about your decision to enter this program at this time. How do your experiences and background relate to your interests and goals? We recommend a 2-4 page statement.

(3) Post-degree psychoanalytic studies: List coursework, workshops, or other psychoanalytic study taken beyond your highest advanced degrees. Include any other studies and/or work experience relevant to your interest in psychoanalysis.

(4) Transcripts of all graduate work – these can be copies and need not be a sealed envelope

(5) Current copy of license

(6) Current copy of malpractice insurance face sheet

(7) Three letters of reference from supervisors, colleagues, or others professionals who are very familiar with your professional and clinical work (other than your analyst/ therapist). At least one of these references should be from a current individual supervisor. Please ask each to write in detail regarding your suitability for psychoanalytic training at an advanced level. Their letter should be addressed to the Admissions Committee and sent along with your completed application, unless he or she prefers to send it to us directly. It need not be in a sealed envelope.

We require 3, but you may provide additional letters of reference. We may contact your references for additional information about your work.

(8) Teaching syllabi: if you teach, or have taught, send copies of class syllabi. If you taught a workshop/seminar with no syllabus, you may use an outline or description.

Deadline for completed application and all supporting materials, is April 1st.

SUBMITTING THE APPLICATION: You may submit your application either electronically or hard copy. Only submit a complete application.
