Toward a Social Psychoanalysis
Culture, Character, and Normative Unconscious Processes

Lynne Layton, Harvard Medical School, USA and Marianna Leavy-Sperounis

Series: Relational Perspectives Book Series

For over thirty years, Lynne Layton has heeded the call for a social psychoanalysis and produced a body of work that examines unconscious process as it operates both in the social world and in the clinic. Clinicians, academics, and activists alike will find here a deeper understanding of the power of unconscious process, and are called on to envision and enact a progressive future in which vulnerability and interdependency are honored and systemic inequalities dismantled.

“…it is nothing short of wonderful and liberating to read this panoptic collection of Lynne Layton’s work. For those of us struggling to realise the potential of our field, Lynne is the outstanding writer on how the social and the clinical interweave… Students and more seasoned practitioners will want to keep the book close at hand.”

Andrew Samuels, founder of Psychotherapists and Counsellors for Social Responsibility, UK, author of The Political Psyche
