We welcome you to join us virtually as a panel of MIP analysts, candidates, and postgraduate fellows discuss analytic training and psychoanalysis in the 21st century.

Sample topics we will discuss:

- What is meant by "Comparative Psychoanalysis?"
- What are the differences between the Fellowships and Training Programs?
- Why, and at what point, might one pursue training?

Founded over 30 years ago, MIP is the first comparative and multi-disciplinary psychoanalytic training institute in New England. Engaged locally, nationally, and internationally, MIP is a vibrant community of clinicians & scholars with a diversity of perspectives from classical to contemporary.
